

INSIDER TRADING POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Board of Directors of Rockcliff Metals Corp. has determined that Rockcliff should formalize its policy on matters relating to the awareness of the prohibitions on, and prevention of, Insider Trading as it relates to personnel employed by or under contract to Rockcliff.

2. OBJECTIVE OF THE POLICY

- 2.1 The objective of this Insider Trading Policy (the "Policy") is to ensure that Rockcliff and all persons to whom this Policy applies meet their obligations under applicable securities laws and stock exchange rules by ensuring that all such persons who have Material Non-Public Information (as defined below) do not engage in insider trading or tipping.

3. APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

- 3.1 The provisions of this Policy apply to all directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Rockcliff, each of whom will agree to be bound by such provisions upon notification of the most recent copy, and all Related Persons (as defined below) of such persons (collectively, "Restricted Persons").
- 3.2 The provisions of this Policy that apply to trading and reporting of transactions in securities apply to all transactions in Rockcliff's securities, including common shares, stock options and any other securities Rockcliff may issue from time to time (as well as the securities of other companies described in Section 6.4 (d) below).
- 3.3 This Policy should be read with and in conjunction to Rockcliff's Corporate Disclosure Policy.
- 3.4 Any person who is unsure whether he or she may trade in a given circumstance should contact the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer or the Corporate Counsel for specific guidance. Persons subject to this Policy are encouraged to consult with the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer or the Corporate Counsel generally, prior to any trading in securities of Rockcliff.
- 3.5 Reporting Insiders (as defined below) are also encouraged to seek independent legal advice for matters other than routine reporting.

4. COMMUNICATION OF THIS POLICY

- 4.1 To ensure that all Restricted Persons are aware of the Policy, a copy of the Policy will be distributed to all directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Rockcliff, or alternatively, they will be advised that the Policy is available on Rockcliff's website for their review. All such persons will be informed whenever significant changes are made. New directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Rockcliff will be provided with a copy of this Policy and will be educated about its importance.

5. DEFINITIONS & EXPLANATIONS

What is "Material Non-Public Information"?

- 5.1 "Material Information" is any information relating to the business and affairs of Rockcliff that results in, or would reasonably be expected to result in, a significant change in the market price or value of any of Rockcliff's securities or that would reasonably be expected to have a significant influence on a reasonable investor's investment decisions.
- 5.2 Both positive and negative information can be material. Because trading will be evaluated after the fact with the benefit of hindsight, questions concerning the materiality of particular information should be resolved by treating such information as being material. See Section 6 of Rockcliff's Corporate Disclosure Policy for more information on how to determine if information is material and also for examples of material information.
- 5.3 "Non-Public Information" is information that is not generally known or available to the public. Information is considered to be available to the public only when it has been released broadly to the marketplace (such as by a press release or by filings with the Securities Commissions) and the investing public has had time to absorb the information fully. As a general rule, information is considered non-public until the close of business on the second full trading day after the information is released. "Trading day" shall mean a day on which the Canadian Stock Exchange is open for trading.

Who is a "Related Person"?

- 5.4 For purposes of this Policy, a "Related Person" includes: your spouse, minor children and anyone else living in your household, or who does not live in your household but whose transactions in Rockcliff's securities are directed by you or are subject to your influence or control; partnerships in which you are a general partner; trusts of which you are a trustee; and estates of which you are an executor. Although a person's parent or sibling may not be considered a Related Person (unless living in the same household), a parent or sibling may be a "tippee" for securities laws purposes. See below for a discussion on the prohibition on "tipping".

Who is a "Reporting Insider"?

- 5.5 All directors, officers and certain designated employees of Rockcliff as listed in Section 5.6 below are considered as Reporting Insiders and, in addition to the terms and conditions of this Policy, are subject to the reporting obligations stipulated in applicable securities laws.
- 5.6 "Reporting insiders" include, among others:
- the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Vice Presidents, Corporate Secretary, or General Counsel of Rockcliff or of a major subsidiary of the Corporation;
 - a director of the Corporation or of a major subsidiary of the Corporation;
 - a person or company responsible for a principal business unit, division or function of the Corporation;
 - any other insider who:

INSIDER TRADING POLICY

- a. in the ordinary course receives or has access to information as to material facts or material changes concerning Rockcliff before the material facts or material changes are generally disclosed; and
- b. directly or indirectly exercises, or has the ability to exercise, significant power or influence over the business, operations, capital or development of Rockcliff.

5.7 If an individual falls into one of the above categories, that individual is required to file insider trading reports and should consult with the Chief Financial Officer to confirm his or her reporting obligations.

6. SPECIFIC POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

Non-disclosure of Material Non-Public Information

6.1 Maintaining the confidentiality of information of Rockcliff is essential for competitive, security and other business reasons, as well as to comply with securities laws. You should treat all information you learn about Rockcliff or its business plans in connection with your employment or association as confidential and proprietary to Rockcliff. Inadvertent disclosure of confidential or inside information may expose Rockcliff and you to significant risk of investigation and liability.

6.2 The timing and nature of Rockcliff's disclosure of Material Information to outsiders is subject to legal rules, the breach of which could result in substantial liability to you, Rockcliff and its management. Accordingly, Material Non-Public Information must not be disclosed to anyone, except to persons within Rockcliff or third party agents of Rockcliff (such as investment banking advisors or outside legal counsel) whose positions require them to know it, until such information has been publicly released by Rockcliff.

6.3 For further information on the treatment of confidential information, reference should be made to Rockcliff's Corporate Disclosure Policy.

Prohibited Trading in Rockcliff Securities

6.4 No Restricted Person shall, directly or indirectly, engage in any transaction involving a purchase or sale of Rockcliff's securities during any period commencing with the date that he or she possesses Material Non-Public Information of Rockcliff and ending at the close of business on the first full trading day following public disclosure of that information. For greater certainty, examples of prohibited transactions would include, but are not limited to the following:

- buying or selling securities of Rockcliff, other than through the exercise of Rockcliff granted fixed price share options or warrants, but not the sale of the securities so acquired (see below);
- buying or selling securities whose price or value may reasonably be expected to be affected by changes in price of securities of Rockcliff;
- selling securities acquired through the exercise of share options or warrants; and
- buying or selling securities of another company in which Rockcliff proposes to invest or with which Rockcliff has a business relationship or where the individual, in the course of employment with Rockcliff, becomes aware of Material Non-Public Information concerning that other company.

INSIDER TRADING POLICY

6.5 Restricted Persons may be subject to civil and criminal liabilities for engaging in such transactions at a time when they have knowledge of Material Non-Public Information about or affecting Rockcliff.

"Tipping" Information to Others

6.6 No Restricted Person shall disclose ("tip") Material Non-Public Information to any other person (including Related Persons) where such information may be used by such person to his or her benefit by trading in the securities of companies to which such information relates, nor shall such Restricted Person make recommendations or express opinions on the basis of Material Non-Public Information as to trading in securities of Rockcliff or other companies.

6.7 Restricted Persons may also be liable for improper transactions by any person (commonly referred to as a "tippee") to whom they have disclosed Material Non-Public Information or to whom they have made recommendations or expressed opinions on the basis of such information.

Avoid Speculation

6.8 In order to ensure that perceptions of improper insider trading do not arise, Restricted Persons should not "speculate" in securities of Rockcliff. For the purpose of this Policy, the word "speculate" means the purchase or sale of securities with the intention of reselling or buying back in a relatively short period of time in the expectation of a rise or fall in the market price of such securities. Speculating in such securities for short-term profit is distinguished from purchasing and selling securities as part of a long-term investment program. "Speculation" does not include the exercise of Rockcliff granted, fixed price share options or warrants and sale of the securities so acquired in order to take the benefit of long term appreciation inherent in such options or warrants, so long as the sale does not involve the use of Material Non-Public Information.

7. TRADING RESTRICTIONS

No Trade Periods

Mandatory Periodic Blackouts

7.1 Directors, officers, senior management and all corporate employees of Rockcliff may not trade in Rockcliff's securities during the following periods:

- with respect to annual financial statements, from March 15 until the close of business on the second full trading day following public disclosure of such financial statements; and
- with respect to quarterly financial statements, from the last day of the month following the end of the financial quarter until the close of business on the second full trading date following the public disclosure of such financial statements.

Event Specific Blackout Periods

7.2 From time to time, information may develop or an event may occur that is material to Rockcliff but not yet disclosed or disclosable (e.g., material drilling results that are in the process of assay and verification, or negotiation of a material contract). The Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer or their designee will inform directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of an event specific blackout by means of e-mail notification and any other necessary means. All directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Rockcliff are prohibited from trading securities of Rockcliff during the event specific blackout. The existence of any event specific blackout is itself confidential and must be kept confidential by all directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors. Once instituted, an event specific blackout period will continue to exist until the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer or designated person communicates its termination.

No Hedging

- 7.3 No officer or director is permitted to purchase financial instruments for the purpose of, or shall otherwise engage in, hedging or other price protective transactions with respect to options or other equity or equity related securities of the Corporation which are held, directly or indirectly, by the officer or director. In addition, no officer or director is permitted to engage in the short sale of securities of the Corporation or sales of borrowed securities of the Corporation. For the purposes hereof, the concurrent short sale of Corporation shares as a method of facilitating the exercise of a vested option granted by the Corporation shall be deemed not to be a short sale for purposes of the aforementioned restriction.

Exception to Trading Restriction

- 7.4 Trading by Restricted Persons during blackout periods may be permitted in exceptional circumstances with the prior approval of the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, provided that the individual is not in possession of Material Non-Public Information. Exceptional circumstances may, for example, arise where the individual is subject to a pressing financial commitment that cannot be satisfied other than by the sale of securities of Rockcliff, or where the timing of the trade is important for tax planning purposes. The approval for such trades will only be provided upon receipt of positive clearance by legal counsel and may require the Restricted Person to make specific representations regarding the circumstances. If such a pre-clearance is granted under this Policy, such persons are reminded of the general prohibition against insider trading under Canadian securities laws generally, and that compliance with those laws is the sole responsibility of the Restricted Person.
- 7.5 For greater certainty, the prohibition regarding trading in securities of Rockcliff during a blackout period does not apply to the acquisition of securities through the exercise of Rockcliff granted fixed price share options or warrants, but does apply to the sale of the securities acquired through the exercise of the options or warrants. The prohibition regarding trading in securities of Rockcliff during a blackout period similarly does not apply to the acquisition of securities pursuant to an automatic dividend reinvestment plan, restricted share unit plan or any other similar blind or automatic plan that was entered into by the person or company prior to the acquisition of knowledge of the material fact or material change.
